

Topic/Theme	Post Date	Blog Post	Facebook	Twitter	Instagram	YouTube	Notes and URL	Who?
	Sept. 29		Don't forget to register for two upcoming courses that are filling up fast. On Saturday, Dec. 13, from 1 to 6 pm, Laura Stout will be teaching her popular class on turning your recycled goods, including metal, paper, and wood, into art. And on Wednesday, Jan. 17, from 7 to 10 pm, accomplished portraiture artist Franz Holmes will be teaching the very important skill of drawing hands.	Join us to learn how to turn your recycled goods into art, with Laura Stout, on Dec. 13, 1-6pm.	Laura Stout will be teaching her popular class on turning your recycled goods, including metal, paper, and wood, into art on Saturday, Dec. 13.
	Sept. 16		You've probably heard this before, and it's true: Hands are one of the most difficult aspects of portraiture art, and it takes a lot of practice to get them right. Learn how to start mastering this crucial technique from accomplished portraiture artist Franz Holmes, in his Drawing Hands workshop to be held Wednesday, November 18, from 7 to 10 pm, at Orange Valley High School, in Art Room 117. All levels are welcome, though familiarity with charcoal and/or graphite drawing is strongly encouraged. Sign-ups are on a first-come, first-served basis. This course always fills up quickly, so		Accomplished portraiture artist Franz Holmes will be teaching the very important skill of drawing hands on Wednesday, Jan. 17.
	Sept. 10			Methane painting: amazing, science-creating art https://twitter.com/NASA/status/640978847408721921
	Sept. 9			The "Faces of Dog" exhibit at Orange Valley Art Gallery was full of treats and surprises. Thanks to all who attended!	(Poppies picture) By Roy Wickardson, OVCAA teacher and watercolorist
	Sept. 8			Volunteers needed for the City Arts Festival. More details can be found on the OVCAA website: http://ovcaa.org/

	Sept. 7		Our beloved Roy Wickardson, teacher and watercolorist, is back from a year in Europe painting landscapes and city life. He's excited to be teaching again for the OVCAA, and he brings his phenomenal energy, incredible dexterity, and unique creative vision to our intermediate Watercolor 2 course. The course runs from 10 am to 5 pm on Saturday, October 24, with an hour lunch break, in the Art Recreation Room of Orange Valley Community Center. Bring your own lunch or money for the food truck. Watercolors and paper will be available, although you're always encouraged to bring your own supplies. You won't want
	Sept. 4		For those of you who were lucky enough to attend the "Faces of Dog" exhibit at Orange Valley Art Gallery, the evening was full of treats and surprises. Champ, the bulldog, was on hand to help promote Jenny Rogen's popular artwork, featuring Champ himself. A record number of visitors came to see the exhibit and have Champ stamp his pawtograph on purchased prints and paintings. Champ even stamped pawtographs on free postcards for the children in attendance. Thank you to all who turned out for another successful OVCAA event!	These are amazing historical photos! https://twitter.com/pixelford/status/636220626349371392

